If you are a current or former employee of Singing River Health System who participated in the Singing River Health System Employees' Retirement Plan and Trust, or if you are the spouse, alternate payee, death beneficiary, or any other person to whom a plan benefit is owed, a class action lawsuit may affect your rights.

- Plaintiffs have sued Singing River Health System ("SRHS"), related entities, and other defendants alleging that SRHS failed to make contributions to the Singing River Health System Employees' Retirement Plan and Trust ("Plan" or "Trust").
- The United States District Court for the Southern District of Mississippi ("Court") has not decided whether SRHS or any other defendant did anything wrong. There is no money available now, and no guarantee there will be. However, your legal rights are affected.

Settlement Class

The Plaintiffs have asked the Court to allow this lawsuit to be a class action on behalf of all current and former employees of Singing River Health System who participated in the Singing River Health System Employees' Retirement Plan and Trust, including their spouses, alternate payees, death beneficiaries, or any other person to whom a plan benefit may be owed.

Settlement Class Counsel

The Court has appointed James R. Reeves, Jr. of the law firm of Reeves & Mestayer, LLP and Steven L. Nicholas of the law firm of Cunningham Bounds, LLC to represent the Class as Settlement Class Counsel.
